

How would you pass on your faith to your children

Love unconditionally and teach how faith and science intersect

Example, Talk to kids, Be real

Talk, study the Bible, and pray with my kids

Pray and read the Bible with kids

Integrate Bible teachings into children's life experiences

Example, Talk to kids

Talk about your faith

Disciple/mentor your children

Example and telling them why we do what we do

Example, and telling them my faith story

Study the Bible and pray with them

Faith-based conversations outside of church

Example

Example

Example and use the Bible

Example, teach them to serve study the Bible and allow questions

Be real; Example

Be real; Example

Study the Bible and be involved in a church community

Introduce them to experienced Christ-followers

Talk about your faith

Reading the Bible to them

Have other believing adults in the live of our children

Example

Be and example at home and at church

Intentional Bible study

Talk about faith and the Bible

Read justice books

Tell your faith story; help them develop relationship with Jesus

Example

Example and Bible studies

Example and Bible studies

Example

Example

Example, model
It is wrong to think of a plan for children before you know their personality
Example allow questions
Famiy prayer in the home
My Example
Communicating about church and the world telling why it is important
Tell, guide, lead by example
Example, Talk to kids, Be real
Share what we believe with children
Explaining all things through a Christian lens (worldview)
Teach by example honest open conversations with children allow questioning, doubt, love others, present the Gospel
Live intentionally reading Bible, Praying, encourage questions, Christian music
Raising them in the church
Faithful in a church, Example, Bible studies
Example and answering questions about God/religion
Go to church, answer questions, encourage biblical discussions
Talk, go to church, study Bible with them
Start reading the Bible at a very young age
Example
Encourage them to read the Bible
Example; correct in love and reason
Spend one-on-one time with each chlld in prayer and study
Give explanations that include faith
Reading the Bible to them
Family Bible studies
Tell your faith story
Show them my integrated faith
Study the Bible with them
Disciple/mentor your children/ use short trips to engage
Example and telling them why we do what we do
Example
Constant prayer
Open conversation
Be present; answer all questions
Talk about biblical ideas around the dinner table

Family Bible studies
Live by Example
Tell your faith story
Example and "what does the Bible say about this?"
Allow them to explore various faiths and let them choose
Tell your faith story, give them the choice to believe what they want
Example allow questions
Childrens Min; VBS; Sensory learning
Intentional Model Bible study
Teaching and mentoring and leading by Example